

Power-and-free conveyors

ROMER is engaged in designing and installing chain conveyors power-and-free.

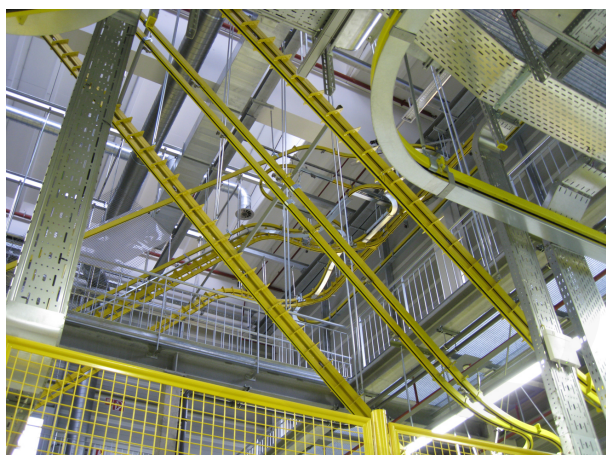

Conveyors of this kind have a lot more possibilities in comparison with continuous conveyors.

In the case of application of this type, it is possible to stop the parts in the furnace so that its cubic volume may be reduced.

This system enables the storage of transverse long parts in the oven, or use turnouts to many booths.

Below are examples of products

gallery

Movies